Respected Sir,

In reply to the D.C. No 01 of the 1st instant from your office, about the treatment of a girl at Tella, Nanda School, Khatedoor I have the honour to state that the parents of the girl a prostitute named Pisachi, brought to my inspection three days ago a girl named Sundaramma I did not notice any marks of beating on her person that either time I saw it no beating, or it was exaggerated the prostitute coming to meet after 5 p.m. was found to be dru

I told her that the master would be warned, if her allegations were true. The matter is not worth coming out in a paper — but writing to newspapers all sorts of things quite apart from truth seem to have become the fashion of the day. This day again I went to the Petta Branch School. The prostitute was called for when she was questioned about the incident referred to, She grew wild and misbehaved herself by abusing one and all. The house-owner of the Brand School building Purusantappa, and a respectable inhabitant Adivappa happened to be present. These people live about the school building. and they said that the woman was not deserving of any credit. but they never noticed the acting master, Govinda Rao beating any body violently and that he was always working the school with great zeal. I know the teacher to be no only a well behaved young man but also hard working. The teacher has always denied the report against him of beating any girl and some of the boys too said that the prostitute came one day and abused and threatened the teacher in her drunken mood saying that her girl was not well treated and taught This must have given enough food for the newspaper mongers to insert something discreditable for the school.

Even the paper says that a rumour exists of the bad treatment of a girl. There is no personal knowledge.

Under these circumstances I submit that the whole is a malicious publication undeserving of any credit. The Ag. Master nevertheless was timely warned. By the strength of the school and progress I notice from time to time — I am of opinion that the staff deserves credit for the earnestness of work Thereby of the newspaper is returned

I have &c
